MESSAGES

Mentees

“Thank you HKFI for this programme to connect us with insurance veterans that we would normally not meet, especially in the pandemic. Hope there will be more programme like this in the future!

Ian Chan
HSBC Life (International) Limited

“Life is ever changing and Alex demonstrated how to adapt and overcome big changes throughout the career which inspired me to explore more widely in insurance industry. It is a great programme and thank HKFI, Alex for being my mentor and bringing me new insights.

Archie Lee
Sun Life Hong Kong Limited

“This programme is a wonderful opportunity for the mentee to gain practical advices and encouragement from the mentor. I would like to thank my mentor Mr. Roddy Anderson, who shared his valuable experience in actuarial, leadership and industry with me.

Ingrid Chen
Blue Cross (Asia-Pacific) Insurance Limited

“Thank you HKFI for organizing this amazing programme, letting us to expand business network and make new friends. I would like to take this opportunity to thank my mentor Mr. Peter Crewe for sharing his experience and insight.

Rachel Wong

Mentors

Mentees,

- Be open minded to embracing changes whenever opportunity comes.
- Actively participate in the industry activities and task force to broaden the view and exposure.
- Be inclusive and positive towards any adverse situation.
- In anticipation of the transformation of the world after COVID-19, we need to proactively address the changes to make a difference.

Agnes Choi

“I am very pleased to connect with two rising talents through the HKFI ETDP. I hope they find me a good sounding board for their thoughts and I actually learn from them on the latest developments and emerging challenges in our industry.

Alex Chu

“It is a good platform to share technical know-how for local market and some historical background to them. Looking forward to seeing they will bring new initiative with old value vision to our industry.

Jimmy Poon

“A mentor's job is to share her experience, skill and knowledge to the mentees. However, in the course of sharing, I also learned from Katie and Stephen. They brought me to see things in a new dimension. Our past experience coupled with their new innovative ideas will definitely drive our industry into a new era.

Teresa Ma
