

Outstanding Community Intermediary of the Year Award

The judges will be looking for individual/agency/team that can demonstrate how he/she/the team has embraced the role in contributing to the community. This can be through a one-off project, on-going community services with a charity in the year. The award winner should be able to demonstrate concrete example(s) of tangible and intangible achievement in CSR programme(s).

Ms Sherry Chiu – Galaxy Agency
Chubb Life Insurance Company Ltd.

At Chubb Life, we are committed to helping our customers achieve financial security and a worry-free future through a comprehensive range of financial and protection solutions. We offer a diverse range of products and services, including accident and health, life insurance, savings, wealth management, investment, education and retirement solutions, through the professionalism of our agency force.

To embody Chubb Life as being a responsible corporate citizen, Galaxy Agency is dedicated to one of its principle philosophies – giving back to the society and serving the needy. In 2015 – 2016, Galaxy Agency has participated in over 10 different activities and events organized by other local charities or social groups, from charity run to elderly visit. In 2016, Galaxy Agency further demonstrates its pledge to shoulder social responsibility by officially setting up its own charity group – Ladies' Club, which was founded back in 2012. The objective of the Ladies' Club is to provide a professional platform of networking, support and charity work for women.

On behalf of Chubb Life Insurance Company Ltd., the Galaxy Agency would like to express sincere gratitude to the Hong Kong Federation of Insurers and Metro Broadcast Corporation Limited. Looking to the future, Galaxy Agency will continue to engage in a diverse range of social services and give back to the society by leveraging on its wide range of professional network such as legal and medical services.

Ms Amy Leung
Manulife (International) Limited

Amy has possessed more than 30 years of experience in the financial services industry, serving in various senior executive positions. She joined Manulife in 2002, and apart from her agency managerial role and consistently outstanding business performance, she has continued to commit herself wholeheartedly to helping the community, which she has been doing for several decades.

Amy's enthusiasm for community service started when she joined the Civil Aid Service (CAS) in 1978. She is now its Assistant Commissioner cum Hong Kong Regional Commander. She has also been appointed by the Secretary of Home Affairs of the HKSAR to the Social Enterprise Advisory Committee and the Youth Square Management and Advisory Committee. And she is an active member of the Junior Chamber International and Rotary International District 3450. In appreciation of her long and meritorious community service, she has been awarded the CAS Long Service Platinum Medal and CAS Commissioner's Commendation, and has been named Outstanding Rotarian of the Year as well as attaining the Chief Executive's Commendation for Community Service.

It was a great honour for Amy to be chosen as one of the finalists of the Outstanding Community Intermediary of the Year at the Hong Kong Insurance Awards 2016. Her selfless dedication to the welfare of others is totally in line with Manulife's caring spirit and ongoing efforts to help people achieve their dreams and aspirations.

Ms Teresa So
AIA International Limited

General International Agency (GIA) was established in 2001 by So Yuen May Teresa, Senior District Director of AIA; it is a Corporate District. In addition to Teresa's many professional designations, she has won numerous industry and public awards from bodies such as MDRT, GAMA, IDA and HKMA. She has served in many organisations including LUAHK, GAMAHK, VTC, APLIC, IARFC, MDRT, IARB, LUAF and contributed significantly to the insurance industry, especially at early stage. Teresa continues to serve both the insurance industry and the community in various capacities.

GIA consists of high calibre passionate professionals. They formed a Social Service Team comprising Caring Ambassadors, aspiring to improve the quality of life of their employees, associates, clients and the underprivileged.

GIA conducts visits to homes for the elderly and orphanages, supports charity flag selling and walkathons, as well as fundraising for victims of natural disasters.

They have long-term projects including funding school buildings and scholarships for students, both locally and in rural China. GIA sponsors the Apex Chapter of Junior Chamber of Commerce, Toastmaster Club, and youth leadership training.

GIA was awarded the "Caring Company" Logo for 10 years, and won the "Learning Enterprise Award" from The Professional Validation Council of Hong Kong Industries in 2015.

Teresa believes that GIA should not only help clients to achieve financial freedom but also provide added value to help clients live a meaningful life by involving them in community projects. GIA are partners of their clients for life, and they should walk the journey of life hand in hand.
